A. McMILLEN,

DRUGGIST.

This world is full of inconsistencies: McCook has a saloonist who is opposed to irrigation—by water. "Rot gut" is evidently his favorite "irrigant."

Well, how would a canning factory strike you now? There is one in sight, and ready to materialize as soon as we can raise the corn, beans, tomatoes, etc.

The Culbertson Roller Mill is now the exclusive property of Geo. E. Johnston of our city, he having purchased the interest of Mr. Benedict, his late partner.

The G. A. R. post of our city meets regularly on the second and fourth Tuesday evenings of each month. Dr. A. P. Welles, commander, Capt. J. A. Wilcox, adjutant.

The irrigation enthusiasts wanted to celebrate the victory for irrigation, Saturday evening. But our careful, thoughtful mayor withheld his consent. He was fearful of a possible conflagration.

Any man who has a good team can secure work on the C. H. Meeker ditch, right now. The supply of men without horses will probably exceed the demand. While there is a scarcity of teams.

If McCook intends to celebrate the Glorious Fourth becomingly hadn't we better get together and devise ways and means for flying the national bird to sublime heights on that natal day? What are the wild waves saying, anyhow?

This week we commence the publication of a series of articles by a pioneer settler of our county. The writer was on the ground early, has been an observer of events, and has a clever way of writing, which will make them very interesting to our readers.

Parties may commute timber culture entries at $1.25 per acre under the act of March 3d, 1891, whether within railroad limits or not, on proof of compliance with the law for four years when the entry is valid and not forfeited by any subsequent failure to comply with the law.

With the change of name, next week, of the Monitor, McCook will have a Democrat and a True Democrat, a republican and a sterling republican newspaper. But above all THE TRIBUNE lays claim to a distinct reputation as being a McCook newspaper—a home newspaper in the truest sense.

Of the 452 votes cast at the bonds election, last Saturday, 363 were for and but 75 against the proposition. On 14 ballots the word "yes" was written instead of a X being made. These votes of course were not counted, but the intention of the voters is clear, and raises the total vote for the bonds to 377, over 5 to 1.

In view of the fact that since the election it is mighty hard to find a man who did not vote for the bonds, it would not be becoming in us to exercise our chivalries too violently. Yet they are capable of going up in the neighborhood of "G." and THE TRIBUNE will be excused for entertaining a mild degree of pride in the result. But we are all irrigationists now.

In the death of Mrs. Mary A. Jacobs, Tuesday morning, Perry precinct loses one of her oldest and most respected citizens. The deceased had reached beyond the allotted three score and ten years of life, and died of old age. The funeral occurred, yesterday morning, from the residence of a daughter, Mrs. W. S. Hamilton. Remains were laid to rest in Longview cemetery.

Arrangements have been perfected for the transfer of the Buffalo Jones herd of buffalo from Culbertson to McCook, and the entire number, between 70 and 80 head, are expected to arrive here, this evening. It is proposed to keep the herd on the Hocknell school section 16, about two miles northeast of the city. This is doubtless the largest and one of the very few remaining herds of bison. It will prove a great attraction; and is a monument to the liberality of our people, who put up generously to secure them.

THE TRIBUNE is ten years old to-day; and by the by, McCook's days are about the same in number. Established at the city's birth, aiming ever to actively espouse her best interest, the history of THE TRIBUNE during the past nine years has been the history of McCook. We have rejoiced with her prosperity, whistled from the darkness clouds of adversity were lowering, and now enter the closing year of the decade with renewed courage and buoyant hopes born of a bright prospect. In a sentence, THE TRIBUNE will continue to lead for McCook.

Noble, The Grocer.

An eastern paper in speaking of its town makes remarks that are so applicable to McCook, when it says: "We must not make the mistake of stopping to look back over the achievements that we have accomplished in the past. The good work is hardly commenced. We are now surely in the lead but we must push on until the superiority as a city of activity is felt and recognized throughout the state. We have made a good beginning. The good things of which we have tasted should only intensify our appetite and make us more determined to march onward and upward until we reach such an altitude in the sphere of commerce that our neighbors can only see us by lifting their heads and looking upward. Let everybody put on the harness of aggressiveness and pull together and we will put the wheels of progress in motion until their revolutions will attain such a degree of speed that no obstacle can stop them. Come now, altogether!"

Assistant Secretary Chandler has reversed the decision of the commissioner holding for cancellation the pre-emption filing of William F. Silanec, contested by John Yeager, for the northwest one-quarter of section 7, township 7, range 39 west, McCook district. He dismissed the contest of Charles W. Huffman vs. Albert J. Hatcher for the northeast one-quarter section 14, township 2 north, range 31 west, McCook district, which was ordered cancelled below. From the same district in the contest against cash entry for the east one-quarter, northeast one-quarter, section 20, township 3 north, range 29 west, McCook district. In the case of Chas. H. Boyle vs. Alexander Stewart, which was held for cancellation by the commissioner, the assistant secretary affirmed the decision below and ordered cancellation.

The union memorial services at the Methodist church, Sunday morning, were largely attended. At the hour appointed the local G. A. R., W. R. C., and S. of V., marched into the church in a body and the exercises opened. They consisted of a fervid, patriotic prayer by Rev. Mather, the entertaining rendition of appropriate songs by the M. E. choir, and an able sermon by Rev. McBride. Flags and flowers decorated the interior of the edifice with propriety and beauty.

A prominent, wealthy and influential citizen mildly complains that the people of McCook have not treated him right in the late school and bond elections. THE TRIBUNE amends and submits that the prominent, wealthy and influential citizen has not treated the people of McCook right in his attitude on these issues. It is a good thing to be unselfishly in touch with the people when desirable public improvements and educational matters are at stake. Try it!

THE TRIBUNE, with that unparalleled modesty which has always marked its course, is compelled, by an overwhelming conviction, to announce that we enter upon the tenth year of its publication with the confidence and support of four-fifths of the citizens and business men of McCook.

SHIRTS TO ORDER. White or fancy. Gents who are accustomed to have their shirts made to order give us a trial order. We guarantee a good fit and reasonable prices. THE FAMOUS.

There is a bright prospect that McCook may have another roller mill, this season. Mr. E. H. Doan is behind the project, and a splendid mill is promised in the event he decides to build.

"There will be plenty of work for men and teams on the South Side ditch as soon as the tools come," says Mr. Meeker. "Men with good teams are specially wanted."

CARD OF THANKS.

In behalf of the South Side farmers I wish to thank the many citizens of McCook and vicinity for the noble manner in which they responded to the call for help in our irrigation enterprise. We will ever hold in grateful remembrance those who labored so untiringly to secure the bonds. In marked contrast to the manly and patriotic spirit manifested by the many was the narrow-minded "dog in the manger" feelings displayed by a few men who by years of extortion and sharp practice have grown rich, and now are not willing to help improve the country where there is a possibility for others to be benefited as well as themselves. It is not improbable that such people will sometime find themselves in a country where the one absorbing theme of thought and prayer will be irrigation, and although the fall may be ample and the water in our "South Side" ditch sufficient to supply the demand, it is doubtful if even Mr. Meeker will attempt to flume the canon that intervenes.

JOHN WHITTAKER.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

INDIANOLA, NEB., May 25th, 1891. EDITOR TRIBUNE—I wish to inform you as well as the readers of the TRIBUNE that the statement in your last week's issue concerning my probable candidacy for county superintendent is premature, erroneous and as far as I am concerned absolutely without foundation. Whenever approached on this subject I have never left any doubt in any honest man's mind as to how I stood on the question. I am not a candidate. Yours truly,

WALTER ROWLAND.

COMFORT AND STYLE.

Both comfort and style are desirable. Indeed when the matter of selecting a livery rig is concerned, they are absolute necessities. The Circle Front Livery Stable make these a study, and together with their prompt and courteous treatment and reasonable charges they offer every advantage possible to the public. Their new surrey is the acme of comfort and elegance.

McCook Is "In It."

Let the irrigationists and every one else rejoice. For many months we have been down in the trough of the sea. We are now ascending toward the crest, and if "fortune favors the brave," we will straddle the highest wave, and ride to victory. There is music in the air, boys, and it sounds for all.

LEFT QUITE SUDDENLY.

MINDEN, NEB., May 25th.—Frank Nagle, who has been in the employ of Robert Pate as a barber, decamped Sunday morning on the 2 o'clock train, taking with him most of his employer's tools. He was traced to McCook, but his pursuers failed to make a capture.
